SCHOOL'S OUT AT AXE VALLEY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Pupils told 'your holidays are safe'

By Philip Evans

WHEN pupils at Axminster Community Primary School heard their school holidays were under threat they decided to do something about it. They wrote to the Government.

The youngsters in Year 4 at the Axminster school recently sent letters to the Secretary of State for Education, Michael Gove, expressing their concerns about Whitehall suggestions to extend the school day and shorten their holidays.

Before breaking up for their summer holidays last week, the pupils were delighted to receive a reply to their letters from Elizabeth Truss, the Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Education and Childcare.

The letter from Mrs Truss, approved by Mr Gove, said she understood the children were worried that if the school day and year got longer they might feel tired and not be able to concentrate.

The letter continued: "Some of you are concerned you will not have enough time to play with your friends, take part in after school activities or get to spend enough time with your families."

"Others of you have expressed concerns about travelling home in the dark during the winter and that this

Health summit in the Guildhall

A HEALTH summit has been called in Axminster by Northern, Eastern and Western (NEW) Devon Clinical Commissioning Group, which is responsible for buying a number of health services for the NHS.

A group spokesperson said: "The contract for these services is due for renewal next year and needs to be specified before Christmas."

"We would like to give you the opportunity to be involved in influencing the design of community services."

Urging people to attend, Axminster GP Dr Phil Taylor said: "By the end of this year we need to decide exactly which services we want provided in the future and how they will be run."

The health summit will be held in Axminster Guildhall on Thursday (August 1st), starting at 7pm.

Quotes of the week...

“ WE have to make sure that we focus precious resources on delivering services to our residents. Our current offices are a drain on our finances. A new purpose built office will allow us to be more effective and efficient so we can deliver top quality services at a price we can afford”

Councillor Paul Diviani, leader of East Devon District Council, addressing stakeholders on the need for EDDC to move out of Knowle in Sidmouth and find new most cost effective offices.

“ I WANT to reassure you that the Government does not tell schools how long the school day, week and year should be. The exact timing of the school day and year is for your headteacher to decide, in agreement with the governing body of your school. They need to set enough hours and days so that you learn well, as well as having time away from school to spend with your family and friends, take part in activities and sport and to relax. We believe that good headteachers will know best what suits their schools.”

Elizabeth Truss, the Parliamentary Under Secretary for State for Education and Childcare, replying to pupils of Axminster Community Primary School who wrote to the Government concerned about changes to the school year, including shorter holidays.

Seaton CC win place in final

SEATON Cricket club reached the final of the Corinthian Cup with a tense two-run win over neighbours Axminster at Cloakham Lawns last Tuesday.

Ax skipper Tristan Wakeley won the toss and inserted the visitors who were soon in deep trouble at 7 for 3 and then 22 for 6.

But the Pirates tail wagged with Alex Hunt (22), Phil Collins (11) and ex-Axminster man Ben Libby (19) all scoring valuable runs down the order as they closed on 91 all out.

Libby and Collins then bagged two wickets apiece as the hosts, needing six off the last ball, fell short on 89 for 7.

Seaton will be bidding to win the 33-year-old trophy for the first time ever when they take on Dartington & Totnes at Ivybridge Cricket Club on Sunday, August 4th (2.30pm start).

THREE novice acrobatic partnerships won gold medals at the recent regional championships

Three young partnerships from Honiton Gymnastics Club were named south west champions and one more took a bronze medal at last weekend's South West Novice Acrobatic Gymnastics Championships.

The results, which confirmed Honiton's junior gymnasts as among the best in the region, were a fitting end to the acrobatic gymnastics season, which began in February with a similar haul of medals.

From the editor's chair Knowle move makes sense

THERE has been much comment on East Devon District Council's intention to move their headquarters from Knowle in Sidmouth to elsewhere in the district.

I was editor of the Sidmouth Herald in 1974 when local government was reorganised and the former Victorian hotel at Knowle was converted into offices.

There were many in those days who did not think Knowle was a suitable building for East Devon's seat of local government, but the options were few and far between.

Here we are, nearly 40 years on, and it seems the arguments put forward to moving to smaller but more modern offices are difficult to dismiss.

It currently costs £458,000 a year to run Knowle and the building needs £1.5 million spend on it for vital maintenance.

Council officers say that moving to a more suitable building will cost £269,000, a saving of £188,000.

This is not the first time that district council has looked at moving its headquarters; back in 1999 councillors were discussing the need for more suitable office accommodation but, we are told, there was no great desire to do so at that time.

But the longer Knowle remains as the headquarters for EDDC the more costly it will be to run and it has finally been recognised that the building is not fit for purpose. A number of sites are under consideration - two in Honiton and a couple in Cranbrook. The latter is on the borders of East Devon, closer to Exeter than most of the towns in the district. New offices need to be accessible to the widest number of council taxpayers so Honiton would be the better choice.

Last Friday delegates representing town and parish councils in the district, chambers of commerce and neighbouring authorities, were invited to a presentation on why EDDC needs to move out of Knowle (see report on page 5).

The council is committed to keeping these "key stakeholders" abreast of the decision making process as the plans develop.

It is to be hoped that equal importance will be given to the council taxpayers of East Devon as well as they will be the ones who pay for it.

♦ WHEN pupils of Axminster Community Primary School heard that there school year could be extended and holidays reduced, they decided to go straight to the Government. Good for them.

They got a polite reply from Education Minister Michael Gove's office saying that if any changes were made it would be down to the headmaster and governors.

We are on the side of the kids here - leave school holidays alone!

SIDBURY

Village fights to save its local pub

CAMPAIGNING villagers from Sidbury have taken the next bold step towards saving their local pub.

Representatives of the Save The Red Lion Campaign in Sidbury have set out on a mission to have the pub listed as an 'asset of community value' to the village.

The Red Lion in Sidbury was put up for sale three months ago, and is the only pub in the village, which plays host to more than 800 residents.

After coming together in mid May to express their concerns over the loss of the pub and the impact it would cause to the community, the campaign was set up with the objective of saving the public house.

Campaigners last week submitted an application to EDDC last week under the 2012 Localism Act, nominating that the Red Lion be listed as an 'asset of community value'.

The application is the first of its kind in East Devon, either to seek to have a pub listed by the local authority under the Localism Act, or by a campaign group seeking to save a village business.

This application is amongst one of only around 70 that have been submitted to save a pub around the country.

Chairman of the Save the Red Lion Campaign, Fred Burnett, said: "This is a significant first step being taken by a concerned village community to save their pub for the community.

"Once East Devon District Council agree to list the Red Lion as an asset of community value then that places a stop on owners Punch Taverns selling it for the time being."

HONITON

New lease of life for two town pubs

TWO of Honiton's oldest pubs have been given a new lease of life.

The Three Tuns Inn on Honiton's High Street and The Star Inn on New Street have both been transformed and updated.

After being closed for half a year, new Three Tuns landlords, Andy Dunn and Ripley Pengelly, welcomed customers for their grand opening over the weekend, promoting one of Honiton's oldest pubs returning to action. The Three Tuns team is completed with another couple, Tia Hunter and Jamie Gorman.

The pub dates back to 1774 and has undergone a major refit during the closure, hoping to give the business the new lease of life needed for it to have a positive future.

Andy says the pub will be music-based, a point proven by a band rehearsing in the combined skittle alley and function room when Pulman's View From Honiton visited.

Meanwhile, a battle for customers has intensified with the re-opening of The Star Inn, with help from JD Wetherspoon and a £1.66 million investment.

COLYTON/SEATON

Green wedge: appeal pending

PLANS for 170 homes on the green wedge between Colyford and Seaton are back in the public eye after developers lodged an appeal against their refusal.

Seaton Park Development Ltd. have appealed against East Devon District Council's decision to refuse the plans, which also included an industrial estate, two football pitches with pavilion, play area and new spine road on land east of Harepath Road, Seaton.

The original outline planning application was met with widespread objection from both Seaton and Colyford residents, who feared loss of the green wedge between the two communities would result in the development of one, larger town.

Despite planning officers recommending approval of the plans, East Devon's Development Control Committee voted against the application in June, when a coach-load of protesters from the local area traveled to the district council offices at the Knowle, Sidmouth, to make their voices heard.

Councillors refused the plans on the grounds that the development would "result in the loss of part of the high quality countryside, bringing the urban area of Seaton close to Colyford to the detriment of the setting of Seaton in the local landscape and encouraging the closer coalescence of the two settlements".

Councillors also commented that the development would damage the habitat of local wildlife, including several species of bats, and they were "not satisfied" that the proposed 20 per cent affordable housing would meet the local need.

The appeal lodged on July 22nd was expected by many objectors, who fear the application will now be passed by the appeal inspector, as has happened with several similar applications around East Devon in recent months, as the district currently does not have an in-date Local Plan and is required to provide a five-year land supply.

Mayor of Colyford and Colyton parish councillor Howard West, who led the campaign against the original application, said he would "continue to lead the fight to save the green wedge between Seaton and Colyford from development".

Biscuit makers help for playgroup

■ PUPILS in Year 5 Class at Axminster Primary School engaged in large-scale biscuit production to raise money for playground equipment.

School catering manager Emma Williams oversaw the project, which raised about £60.

The pupils were split into four groups and, apart from making the biscuits, they also did market research, marketing and cost analysis.

Approximately 400 biscuits were produced and sold to fellow pupils at break times.

The pupils did a roaring trade and the photo shows catering manager Emma Williams with some of the students and the last batch of biscuits.

School sowing project reaps rewards

■ PUPILS at Axminster Primary School have been busy reaping the rewards of their sowing project. Each class was allocated a raised bed in the school garden, growing a variety of produce including potatoes and herbs.

The school garden opened two years ago and has proved very fruitful. The produce harvested has been used by the school's let's get cooking club, which was set up three years ago.

Photographed are some of the enthusiastic producers with a box of straight from the soil potatoes.

Knowle: Why EDDC need to move out of Sidmouth

MORE 30 people attended a district-wide event held to brief local organisations and stakeholders about East Devon District Council's relocation plans.

They heard the rationale for the Cabinet and Full Council decisions to explore options outside Sidmouth because staying at the current headquarters building at Knowle is not considered viable. They were later able to comment and ask questions.

Among those represented at the meeting included town and parish councils, chambers of commerce, community organisations, neighbouring local authorities and pressure groups.

Delegates were welcomed to the event by Council Leader Paul Diviani, who outlined the financial pressures that EDDC faces, the unsustainable costs associated with running Knowle and the services and customer benefits that the Council is seeking to achieve through relocation.

"Councils are facing an unprecedented level of cuts in their finances as part of the efforts to reduce government borrowing," said Cllr Diviani. "We have to make sure that we focus precious resources on delivering services to our residents. Our current offices are a drain on our finances. A new purpose built office will allow us to be more effective and efficient so we can deliver top quality services at a price we can afford".

Deputy Chief Executive Richard Cohen then outlined the principles the council was working to, namely that any:

- ◆ Move to new offices would place no extra burden on Counciltax payers

- ◆ New buildings will be flexible, fit for purpose and meet the highest possible energy efficiency standards

- ◆ New offices will be accessible and the Council will develop new ways of working to allow customers to access services in the way that suits them best

- ◆ New office building/accommodation will maximise the use of space and technology for the benefit of customers and the productive working of staff and councillors.

High costs

His presentation went on to cover all the different options that the council had considered for relocation and why EDDC's Cabinet had decided that staying at Knowle is not a viable option. The Cabinet decision was endorsed at full council on Jul 24.

Richard Cohen demonstrated the high running costs of the current buildings at Knowle. He then explained how different options for Knowle had been considered and why none of them would produce enough money to pay for new accommodation. This was because all the options would be a mix of council offices, council parking and housing which are not anywhere near as commercially attractive to developers as a residential-only site would be.

Options for Honiton and Cranbrook were then examined, showing the different potential sites and looking at some of the advantages and disadvantages. Mr Cohen confirmed that any new offices would be smaller, flexible and more energy efficient as well as offering better access for customers and delivering a modern working environment for staff and councillors.

He outlined the next steps, which included doing more detailed work on the different Honiton and Cranbrook options and opening negotiations on the various sites. The timescale for a report back to Cabinet was confirmed as around the end of the year, with any potential move scheduled for July 2016.

Mr Cohen emphasised that the council was committed to keeping key stakeholders abreast of the decision making process and progress of the project through a district-wide stakeholder group which would meet at points during the project.

The council's commitment to equalities was underlined and it was noted that there would be an equalities impact assessment and consultation with equalities partners, particularly through the design phase of the new building.

Delegates were then asked to consider what they thought were most important issues for the council to keep in mind during any move to new offices and what opportunities might there be to improve services as part of the move. There was considerable discussion of this and the feedback broadly fell into five areas:

- ◆ Creating easy access in person by public transport and enough parking for those who might need to drive

- ◆ Delivering new office accommodation should be about new ways of working not just money

- ◆ Having more mobile staff, service surgeries and working more closely with town councils

In his closing remarks, Cllr Diviani thanked delegates for their contributions, saying he was inspired by the enthusiasm shown by people and their desire to seek the best solution.

■ CORNERED! The elusive peacock is finally captured

Paul the Barber catches that elusive peacock

A WILD peacock on the loose in Kilmington was several days was finally apprehended on Sunday morning.

The frightened peacock was cornered in barber Paul Woodage greenhouse at Kilmington and rescued by Andrew Collier from the Axe Wildlife Park, near Axminster.

Andrew said that for all her escapades the peacock was "a very good weight and seemed on the face of it to be in good condition".

As she does not seem to have an owner claiming her, Andrew says he will put her alongside his other exotic birds in the park, although he will clip one of her wings to stop her roaming again.

Paul is convinced it was the lure of his chocolate tomatoes that he is growing that drew her to his greenhouse. Others might think that, as the weather has turned, maybe it was the need for shelter. Whatever the reason, after stalking her for about an hour he did manage to capture her with only the loss of one tomato as Andrew caught her in the net.

Paul wishes it to be known that he is, however, not available to catch the peacock which is at present roaming around Colyton.

Pupils dance the night away

■ TRACTOR BOYS AND GIRLS: These students appear to have rocked up in tractors

THE types of transport varied from camper vans to horse boxes and tractors when Year 11 students of Axe Valley Community College in Axminster gathered for their prom at Hornsbury Mill, near Chard.

Not even the rain on Thursday, June 27th could dampen their grand entrances.

Year 11 students who had finished their GCSEs, and the sixth formers had separate proms.

Head of Year 11 Jo Osborne said: "Once inside the venue the students danced the night away in style, enjoying a buffet and a chocolate fountain for desert."

"As the evening progressed everyone voted for the two people they wanted to win the title of Prom King and Prom Queen."

"Ed Chubb and Meg Bilton were crowned with sashes, crowns and thrones after receiving a huge number of votes each."

"A wonderful evening was had by all - even the teachers were 'throwing shapes' on the dance floor."

"It was a very fitting end to what has been an amazing five years together."

"The students looked very glamorous and grown-up and I wish them all the best for results day on Thursday August 22nd and look forward to seeing many of them again in the sixth form."

■ GREASED LIGHTNIN': The cast gave sterling performances

For Axe Valley read Rydell High!

FIFTY students or so were involved with the end of term musical at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster.

Grease The Musical, by Jim Jacobs and Warren Casey, played to sell-out audiences over three nights and a matinee performance.

Apart from performing on stage, students were involved with the production as a whole including scene changing, lighting, sound and marketing.

The art students, for example, designed and produced all the scenes and sets.

Chairman of governors Graham Watts enjoyed the show and said: "A delightful evening at Rydell High."

"What a thoroughly enjoyable performance - provided by a cast and backroom team that oozed both enthusiasm and professionalism."

"My thanks and congratulations to everyone involved for producing such a wonderful entertainment."

"They are all a great credit to both themselves and the college."

"Stuart Wight and Heidi Miller were selected for their outstanding leadership qualities and their exemplary contribution to the college and the wider community."

"It is a prestigious role and we are very proud to have such superb role models in our school."

"Congratulations to Stuart and Heidi and all of the senior prefects."

The senior prefect team will work closely with Martin Smith and Ian Hunt over the next year to lead improvements and run events for the school.

The new senior prefects are: Jess Board, Josh Bolton, Jade Bridge, Harriet Burrough, Tom Lowe, Grace Lynn, Holly Stock, Callum Eastwood, Sam Harris, Jess King and Jamie

■ FIRST CHAPTER: Staff and children about to start the challenge

Library's summer challenge

AXMINSTER Library's Summer Reading Challenge has kicked off – but it is still possible to join.

The launch on Tuesday, July 16th saw children accept the challenge of borrowing and reading at least six books over the summer.

Library staff member Penny Davis said: "Every year, thousands of families all over the country are involved in the UK's biggest reading event for children in libraries, the Summer Reading Challenge.

"In 2013, the challenge is called Creepy House.

"The aim is to get children to read six books from their library during the summer holidays.

"It's great fun for kids, it keeps them reading through the summer preventing their reading ability from dipping and what's more, it doesn't cost a penny to join.

"The challenge is designed for children of all ages and reading abilities.

"They can read any books they like – fact books, stories, joke books, picture books – it's up to them.

"Audio books count too. As long as you're borrowing them from the library, they all count.

"Everybody who reads six books or more will receive a certificate and a medal at our Finishers' Party on Tuesday September 10th."

Anyone interested in joining can contact the library for more information.

Give Your loved One The Gift Of A Fulfilling Life At Rose Lodge Care Home

Imagine the peace of mind you'll feel knowing that your loved one is getting the best possible care in a loving and understanding environment. Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

We offer DAY CARE, RESPITE CARE and RESIDENTIAL CARE and free trial days.

Please call Peter or Karen now on 01395 227071 to discuss your needs.

Seaton's Voice recognised

MEMBERS of Seaton Rotary Club awarded Seaton's Voice with the Rotary International Britain and Ireland Award for services to the community.

The award was handed over by new president for the year, Jean Davies, to chairman of Seaton's Voice, Carole Manley.

Alongside the award, a £100 cheque was presented to go towards the young leaders scheme, which was collected by young leader, 12-year-old, Jennifer Weber.

Rotary president, Jean said: "The Rotary Club of Seaton has always appreciated Seaton's Voice and the vital work that they do for the town.

"They do so much for Seaton and we are glad to show recognition of all they have done."

The trio are pictured during the annual presidential handover night, alongside Nigel Groves and Fiona Gage of the Beer Scouts who gave a presentation on their recent jamboree trip.

Wetlands trip

LOCAL childminders and their 'mindees' gathered at the Borrow Pit at Seaton's Wetlands for a fun packed activity day. The event was organised by Julie Weber (Little Jewels Childminding) and attended by fellow funded childminders Linda Long (Ladybirds Childminding) and Juletta Obudo (Kidz Playz Childcare) and non-funded childminder Sam Simpson (Little Pixies). The children were able to enjoy the natural environment identifying leaves and observing the texture of natural objects. After walking around the pond the children sat down together for a snack.

Space theme for arts week

CHILDREN from Beer Primary School went out of this world in their annual arts week.

This year the theme was space, and all the children took part, creating various works of art from alien space ships and whizzy rockets to watercolours, shiny foil designs and mosaics.

The week kicked off with a visit from the Explorer Dome where the children enjoyed a hands-on science show focusing around the world of space, transporting them to the planets and beyond.

The children then took part in a range of arty activities surrounding the space theme, which culminated in a special exhibition at the end of the week for parents and families to enjoy, transforming the school hall into a galaxy far, far away.

The children are pictured at the art exhibition with some of their work.

Anniversary fun

STAFF and children from Rupert's Playgroup in Seaton celebrated in style when they held a special 20th anniversary party at the town hall.

Packed full of playgroup goers, past and present, staff from over the years and parents, the hall was a hive of activity and celebrations for the special event.

Partygoers had the chance to take part in a number of activities from crown making and colouring to face painting, glitter tattoos, fruit kebabs, cake decorating and sugar craft. The children also got a chance to boogie the afternoon away with a mini disco and traditional party games such as musical statues and pass the parcel.

'Famous faces' at school's summer fete

"FAMOUS Characters Through History" was the theme for Colyton Grammar School students when they gathered in the sunshine for their annual summer fete.

Organised by the grammar school students and members of the Parent's Association, the fete welcomed many onto the school site for a mixture of games, stalls and a sizzling barbecue.

Students from Years 7 and 8 designed their own stalls based on the fete's theme, featuring famous faces from the past and present, from Elvis Presley and Winston Churchill to Robbie Williams.

By Laura Goldsbury Noy

Year 11 students provided entertainment in the drama studio, whilst the sixth form pupils ran a busy tombola and various fundraising stalls.

All money raised from the event will support the school's Parent's Association in raising as much money as possible towards a new mini-bus.

Allowing gulls to starve is cruel

■ AGAIN, please allow my right of reply to K. Hackman (Letters, July 23rd) regarding gulls.

Not once in any of my past letters have I said I hate gulls, in fact, to see them in their right place, the coast, is a sight to see but we know why they are coming inland. I have also said it is a human problem but we cannot do anything about the humans that are thoughtless with their waste.

I have watched from my elevated garden close to the town center of Axminster four breeding pairs recently. I have seen the parents quite distressed with very little food when they come to feed their begging chicks, not once did I see any reasonable amount of food dis-gorged with the result that the chicks on one rooftop died of starvation.

With the population increase of gulls, which I have noticed in the last 10 years in the town, and the lack of sufficient food for these birds, remembering they had a good food source before the sealed bins, I can only see more starving chicks each year. Do you call that natural culling? I call it cruel!

Wherever D.J. Stevenson (Letters, July 23rd) lives he is very lucky to see so many small birds and just an occasional gull.

V.A. COATES,
Musbury Road, Axminster

Plenty of birds in my garden!

■ I'M glad my garden birds don't read Pulman's or they'd think they were endangered and just roll over, beaks and claws in the air.

Our garden (five minutes walk from the Minster) is crowded with birds. I have counted over 20 species including, yesterday, a flock of long-tailed tits and a glorious male bullfinch.

We get all the usual suspects with frequent goldfinches, greenfinches and dunnocks. We've even had fieldfares and redwings during a bad winter. There are goldcrests in the pines, heard but never seen.

I feel the biggest threat to them is not herring gulls, which we never see in our garden, but visiting cats and grey squirrels. Last night we were disturbed by the noise of a pair of hedgehogs doing what comes naturally.

Which is Honiton's oldest inn?

■ AS several of Honiton's oldest inns spuce themselves up, are we about to witness the latest "battle of the pubs"?

History records Honiton once had 56 inns, by my count now reduced to only 10. Like aged gents those left have started to argue vainly about who is the oldest.

"I am (possibly) the oldest", boasts the refurbished Star Inn in New Street.

"I am definitely the oldest", says the Three Tuns, "and can even claim to be a listed building".

"I am so old I need another rest", Montgomerys,

The Dolphin, seems to be saying.

Historians Trevor Hitchcock and Terry Darrant have not quite settled the matter reminding us these and other ancient inns have waxed and waned through owners, wars, fires, recessions, licensing laws and taxes on beer and spirits.

Can anyone settle the question of which is Honiton's oldest inn? Good luck to them and all who properly use them.

TONY SIMPSON,

Restaurant full of Temptations!

■ JUST letting your readers know we dined out in Temptations restaurant at 1 Fore Street, Seaton.

Excellent interior layout, roomy and clean with pine tables and chairs and some sofa style seats. Service was excellent and the cod was as good as any we've ever had. How they get it that fresh in this part of the country beats me, but it certainly wasn't sourced from any supermarket, I know.

We had the "mini" portions but it was as much as we could eat. Piping hot and the batter and chips were clean and crisp.

A very good relaxing experience. Recommend this place to anyone. A credit to the town.

We told them we'd put in a good word in with the local media and it seems you're it.

Pulman's View

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE chief news of the week must be the royal birth, and websites from France to Australia have given the news top billing.

One offered readers an on-line "royal baby name generator", which will probably be settled by the time this appears.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, was one of the first to speak of his joy on Twitter. "May God bless them all with love, health and happiness," he said. Amen to that.

Well-wishers wanting to give a gift to celebrate the birth are gently steered away from Kensington Palace, but asked to support "those more in need" or to donate to a children's charity local to them, or to the Imperial College Healthcare Charity of St Mary's Hospital, where the baby was born.

Guessing games about the names chosen for the new Prince have already started, and the bookmakers report the greatest non-sporting event in their history. One recorded taking £390,000 in choices in three hours. Parents have 42 days to register a name, but earlier news is expected (the name was announced as Prince George Alexander Louis of Cambridge before going to press).

The Archbishop is still in the news as he intends to make a direct attack on payday lenders and loan sharks with a view to driving them out of business. He will try to have a church union to fill the gap.

The London Church, where David Cameron and Michael Gove MP worship, is looking for a new priest - the advertisement for the post describes the congregation as "splendid and diverse."

The first overseas visit by the new Pope from the new World is fittingly to the continent of his birth. Tens of thousands turned out to greet him and while this is early in the new papacy it looks as though there will be healing of earlier divisions and crises among the Roman Catholics in Latin America.

More from Rome - the Catholic Church has cleared the way for Pope John Paul II to be made a saint, together with Pope John XXIII. One possible canonization date is December 8th, this year, on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, a major date.

So moving on to Devon, 80 churches from all over the county have attended a conference to consider how to heat their churches more effectively. The Exeter Diocesan Environment Officer, Martyn Goss, can answer enquiries by calling 01392 294924.

Local church events now take on a seasonal pattern - Musbury Church at 10am on Sunday, August 4th offers a Songs of Praise of selections by the congregation. Branscombe holds the Annual Church Market on Thursday, August 8th at 10.30am - 2pm for church funds.

Sunday, August 18th at 6pm will host another Songs of Praise on Branscombe Beach, with suppers to order by calling 680277.

On Saturday, July 27th at 12noon in the JPC Chapel of Exeter Cathedral prayers were said for our Companion Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf. And on Monday, August 5th at Allhallows by the Tower there is an annual reunion Eucharist and lunch is bookable.

LISA Lyman runs a gallery in Axminster and recently declared an interest in taking over as chairman of the town's chamber of commerce.

● WHERE were you born and where did you grow up?

I was born in Surrey to a banker and a teacher. We moved to Harrogate when I was 11 and then to Edinburgh when I was 14. I was a legal PA for 10 years after secretarial college and then, at 28, went to Italy to "find myself".

I "found myself" and fell in love with an American, Obray, who whisked me off to America. We got married and lived in Massachusetts for 10 years during which time we adopted two of his nephews.

It was then time to come back here so the boys could go to a school without going through a metal detector.

My grandmother was born in Bridport to a dressmaker and a police constable. Her family was from Yetminster (glove makers) and Gillingham (stonemasons who built railway and Severn Tunnel). I was very close to her and have always felt I belonged here where my ancestors are entrenched in this area's history.

● YOU have a gallery - have you always been in that line of business?

In January I realised a life-long dream of having a shop full of beautiful things when I opened Apple Tree Galleries. For the last four years, together with Wendy Fountaine, I have been organising art and craft shows as Axminster Artisans, where I built up a good reputation with local exhibitors and customers.

I have had a wide range of jobs; English nanny in America, secretarial temp in a variety of businesses, writing technical manuals for software, managed a beachfront bed and breakfast/timeshare and office manager for a finance company. My favourite though was at the chamber.

● HAVE you had any reactions from other people since you outlined your vision for Axminster Chamber of Commerce?

I understand the chamber has received some very encouraging comments. I have also had a few people come up to me and say they would now join the chamber. I think people are ready for a change, and I think there are a lot of women in business in Axminster who would be encouraged to join an organisation lead by a woman.

● DOES an American chamber of commerce generally have more clout than one in Britain?

I don't think it matters where it is, it's the size of the membership. The one I worked for had a couple of hundred members at a higher rate than here. Therefore, it had the funds to employ a full-time executive director and assistant. Full-time staff achieve a lot more than part-time volunteers.

That said, motivated volunteers working together as a team can be very successful. That is what I would like to set up, several teams with different goals made up of passionate members.

● WHICH was your favourite subject at school?

Not surprisingly, art! I just love being creative. I get a great sense of satisfaction making something and then to have somebody appreciate it

● WHAT makes you happy?

Apart from friends and family, living here in the countryside with the coast down the road, hearing people's lovely comments about the shop, telling one of our exhibitors they've sold something and seeing their excitement, selling something to someone who really appreciates its craftsmanship, making someone's day a little bit better, sometimes it just takes a smile!

● WHAT makes you angry?

Temperatures that go above 20 degrees, I really struggle with the heat! Wasting time and money. Beautiful countryside disappearing under concrete when empty buildings could be reused. I really don't like oversized lorries pushing their way through Axminster creating danger, dirt and noise! I also find it frustrating when customers, who are keen on buying something, suddenly realise the time and rush out of the shop because their parking time is expiring and I lose a sale.

● WHICH is your favourite holiday destination?

Before we lived here we holidayed in the South West every chance we had. We moved here in 2005 and I've hardly left - why would I, it's all here! However, I do love St Ives. Have you seen it on a sunny day? It would make anyone want to paint it, all those wonderful colours!

● TELL us about your gallery...

I think Apple Tree Galleries is very much an asset for Axminster and I'm pleased to join the many independent traders here. We are a social enterprise and have grown quickly already promoting over 60 local artists and crafters.

Many of our exhibitors are retired people supplementing their pensions with sales and are encouraged to do something that gives them a great deal of satisfaction and a sense of purpose. Prices start at £5 and artwork is capped at £500.

We have a treasure trove of gifts covering a wide variety of crafts and art styles. Most people are surprised that we have three galleries covering 1,000 square feet.

Customers really appreciate our coffee lounge with locally roasted coffee, Tregothnan tea, fruit cocktails from Clyst Hydon, cakes home baked in Axminster, even our music is composed in Yarcombe. We are very definitely all about Keep-

theWI Women's Institutes ROUND UP

COLYTON

THE July Meeting of Colyton WI was held at the Peace Memorial Hall and the President, Jean Hutton welcomed members and guests.

Business was soon dealt with as well as the handing out of birthday cards.

The speaker for the afternoon was Deborah Bean, previously the Queen's correspondence officer for 40 years. She explained that her duties were within the office of the Queen's private secretary and that she had served under five private secretaries.

The Queen not only receives her "boxes" every day and correspondence relating to government in this country and overseas, but many personal letters from the public. Some are dealt with by Her Majesty's ladies in waiting but Deborah also dealt with correspondence and also the preparing of speeches amongst other duties, which had to be written in a large typeface with triple spacing.

Members were taken through a royal year and also given a glimpse of duties on overseas tours. Deborah explained that the talks she gives resulted from an interview with Giles Brandreth called "The Queen and Mrs B". With approval from the palace, Deborah has been kept busy ever since.

Members then enjoyed tea and view many items of interest, not only Deborah collection of royal memorabilia and photos, but also the WI entry for the Axe Vale Show.

Elizabeth Cochrane and Jacky Roberts Wake won the competition "A Letter to the Queen".

Members were reminded of the WI event for Colyton Carnival on August 10th.

■ FOLLOWING mass at the Catholic Church of St Michael & St George in Lyme Regis, Axminster Catenians, together with families and widows, enjoyed lunch hosted by President Nat Bruzon and his wife Patricia, at their home in Membury. Bob Bannister presented Patricia with a floral gift, as a thank you on behalf of all the guests. After mass on President's Sunday, Axminster Catenians president presented Hilary Sharp, who is the Mary's Meals Liaison in Axminster, with two cheques for a total of £507 raised through the Axminster Catenians (pictured above).

Legion visits Chelsea Hospital

A GROUP of 30 members of the Royal British Legion branches from Axminster, Kilmington and Uplyme enjoyed a trip to the Royal Hospital Chelsea in early July.

In-Pensioner, tour guide and former chairman of RBL Devon County, Brian Cummings MBE, provided a fascinating two-hour tour of the grounds and buildings.

Founded by Charles II, architect Sir Christopher Wren was commissioned to design and erect the buildings which were enlarged by James II and completed by William and Mary in 1692.

Over 25,000 old soldiers have lived at Chelsea and currently about 350 are provided with accommodation, six of them being women.

Wren's stunning architecture, the grandeur of the Great Hall and the beautiful chapel, which is used for worship every Sunday – Lady Thatcher was a regular worshipper, as too was her husband, (her ashes are still awaited for interment in the nearby grounds) – entranced everyone present.

The visit ended with tea and cakes in the hospital's cafeteria, a visit to the adjoining museum and gift shop before setting off on the return journey to Devon. Members agreed it was a wonderful visit to a superb British Institution.

Legion ladies reminisce over milk bottles

MEMBERS of the Royal British Legion Axminster Women's Section were engrossed at a recent meeting by guest speaker Peter Haywood, who recounted the story of milk deliveries throughout the decades.

Peter, who worked for Express Dairies, evoked members' memories of a third of a pint bottle given to schoolchildren twice a day and showed a variety of milk bottles as large as two pints, long since discontinued due to their bulky size and weight. Glass bottles initially weighed 20 ounces compared to the current 8 ounce bottles.

Members remembered the old gold top milk from Jersey cows, which blue tits attacked if left too long on the doorstep, compared to semi-skimmed and skimmed milk now favoured by the health conscious.

Sterilised milk, an acquired taste, surprisingly remains popular in the North of England where it is still produced.

Sadly out of the 150,000 farms in existence in the 1950s, only 10,000 milk producing farms remain today with milk being sold by supermarkets at heavily discounted prices.

Many of the members present recounted collecting milk in jugs before doorstep deliveries and mentioned Gays Creamery, Mr Wyatt and other local producers.

Peter has a collection of 900 milk bottles, which he intends to donate to the National Trust and would love to add old bottles from Axminster and Lyme Regis if anyone has any.

During the meeting that followed, the chairman thanked Lesley Frankau for arranging a trip to the Royal Hospital Chelsea (see left).

Treasurer Stella Brown informed the meeting that their recent coffee morning raised £300 for Legion funds.

Members held a garden party on Friday with guest of honour Neil parish MP.

There will be no meeting in August and the group will reconvene for a quiz and bring-and-buy evening on the September 13th. Visitors welcome.

Acorns hop to finishing line

LITTLE Acorns Pre-School recently held their annual sports day, with mums, dads and grandparents attending to cheer on their little ones.

Pre-school leader Michele Young said: "The children have been having lots of fun practicing for the races and on the day they all did a wonderful job. Last year we had to cancel the event due to the bad weather so today couldn't have been better."

All the Little Acorns ran up to rap-porous applause from their supporters to collect their medal and certificate from Michele and deputy leader Jo.

The sports day was followed later in the week with a leavers service, which saw the children graduate to "big school".

Little Acorns Pre-School is set within the grounds of Shute Community Primary School. For further information call Michele or one of the team on 07592 899 236.

Family fun at Cotleigh fete

COTLEIGH'S annual fete and challenge welcomed all the family for a day of fun in the sun.

The event kicked off with the ever-famous Cotleigh Challenge, alongside the yearly skittles challenge and barbecue, with captain Matthew Broom and his team, the defending champions, coming out top.

Meanwhile, the main fete was also deemed a great success packed full of attractions, from homemade cakes and ice creams, to face painting and nail art, plants, produce and crafts.

Entertainment was provided by a magician and a DJ, whilst younger visitors made use of a bouncy castle and traditional fair games, including crockery smash, coconut shy and slippery pole.

The flower show welcomed a large number of floral arrangements and locally-grown produce. Winner Sophie George came away with the Doug Lane Cup and the Larcombe Cup for her flowers, produce and cookery, presented by Pam Lane.

The Cotleigh sections winners were Barbara Marsh and Ann Saunders for their photography and handmade items. In the children's section, first prize went to James Dunn, second place to Ella George and third to Neave George and Lucy Wood.

There were several other competitions, including "Name the Teddy", which was won by Bonita Oliver who named the Bear Charlie.

The envelope competition was won by Ann Coombe and Sarah Broom who picked the lucky envelopes containing the money. The Aunt Sally competition was won by James Dunn for the under 14s and by Josh Edwards for the over 14s. Skittles competition winners were Richard Patch, Sally Solle and Aidan Jones.

The grand raffle was also a big hit with first prize, a £100 Marks and Spencer's voucher, going to Tor McCaig. Second prize of a £50 Waitrose voucher was given to Deana Larany; third prize, a £25 Hare & Hounds voucher went to Sheila Patch; fourth place, a Windmill Garage voucher, went to Sue Barrington Prowse; and fifth prize, a bottle of malt whisky, was given to Martin Dale.

Gillian Broom, chairman of the Cotleigh Fete

Committee, said: "The flower show was full of beautiful colours and arrangement from the gardens of the community and the vegetable show was full of hard competition and wonderful produce.

"The cookery show had amazing creations throughout the competition which showed the skill of the parish.

"The Cotleigh section presented the real beauty of Cotleigh and the people within it.

"A big thank you to not only those who attended but to those who spent their time helping before, during and after the event as it would not be so successful without all the contributions from the local community and from other parishes.

"Also, a big thank you to Dennis Retter for the use of his field for a car park for the afternoon."

Music rings out from Dalwood

A VARIETY of talented singers and musicians appeared at the secon Dalwood Music Festival earlier this month.

The day started with the Arcadia Jazz Band playing in the village hall and, from then on, there was continuous music in St Peter's Church, the Tucker's Arms and the village hall.

One of the highlights was the performance by the children's orchestra of St Mary's Primary School in Axminster under the direction of violinist and pianist, Rachel Burroughs.

The sunny weather brought the music-loving crowds to the village.

Organisers would like to thank and congratulate all the musicians and singers who took part, and the team of stewards and helpers who worked so hard on the day.

Devon Air Ambulance ON TOUR flying visit to Axminster

THANKS to overwhelming public support, Devon's second wholly owned Air Ambulance arrives on 31st July and will be making a series of drop-in visits across the county before it into service on 1st September.

The tour will serve to help aircrew familiarize themselves with the bespoke designed emergency aircraft and to give as many people the chance to see the new helicopters at close quarters and meet the crew. One of the 14 locations across Devon, it will be flying into Axe Valley Community College, Axminster, where the PTFA are organising a fun day in the school grounds, on Tuesday 13th August between 14.00 and 16.00. Everyone is welcome.

The EC135 helicopter, registration G-DAAN, will be based at Eaglescott Airfield, Umberleigh, but, like sister aircraft G-DVAA based in Exeter, it will serve the whole county and be able to reach almost all the county within 15 minutes.

Local businesswoman Julie Hawker, who runs social enterprise company Cosmic, knows only too well how crucial this vital service is. When she fell from her horse in open countryside near Musbury she knew she had badly broken her leg. She actually suffered a multiple compound fracture. She said:

"I'm so grateful to the Devon Air Ambulance team. Without their service the risk of further damage to my leg was very real. I've been advised that, had I not reached hospital within the 'Golden Hour', I may very well have lost my leg altogether."

Devon Air Ambulance attended 12 missions in the East Devon area in May alone.

Heléna Holt, Chief Executive of Devon Air Ambulance Trust (DAAT), said: "The month between taking ownership and going into service is needed to ensure that we have plenty of time for all the aircrew to become familiar with the new aircraft and we quickly realised this gave us a great opportunity to show it off to the real people who have made it possible: the people of Devon!"

Nigel Hare, Operations Director for the Trust, explained how buying instead of leasing the aircraft saves the Trust in the region of £12,000 per month per helicopter, which they are planning to invest in extending operating hours and further clinical skills training for the crew. He said: "It has also given us a unique opportunity to develop a fully customised solution designed to meet the specific needs of Devon and facilitate the best patient care possible, as well as providing a safe and reliable working environment for our crews."

Heléna Holt added: "We are immensely grateful for the unstinting support of the people of Devon and all the communities that have raised money to help us acquire this aircraft and to BBC Radio Devon for the special Air Ambulance appeal that contributed so much towards this project.

"The new helicopter symbolizes our commitment to continuous improvement to our service for which we need to raise over £4.5 million every year. Our next task will be to further extend flying hours and I hope the arrival of G-DAAN will inspire everyone to make a donation to DAAT no matter how small so that we can continue helping those most in need."

TREATMENTS last approx. 1hr and can include soft relaxing music perfumed candles. Home visits for housebound and elderly.

Reflexology is a none abrasive therapy for the feet and hands. It is one of the oldest therapies. It is not just foot massage, as different parts of the body can be helped in different ways, palpating and pressure. It is very relaxing especially for people with long term problems, especially those caused by stress or those which causes stress. Reflexology reduces stress, enabling our bodies to work better, if we are less stressful we also have less pain and are less susceptible to common ailments, because our body and mind is working better therefore we are healthier.

Indian Head Massage also is very relaxing and has been helping people for hundreds of years. It can be given with or without oils, but obviously the use of oils are more beneficial. The western therapy includes shoulder, upper spine, upper arms, neck head and face. This therapy can be given sitting in a chair and can be done on top of thin clothing. Some employers are offering Indian Head Massage for their employees in stressful jobs, having realized the benefits of improved productivity. I can also include a beauty massage if required for a little extra charge.

Therapeutic Massage [Back and shoulder with oils]

It is surprising how many problems start with stress from the spine and shoulders, which can effect our lives in lots of ways, someone once said "more time is lost off work because of back and shoulders problems than most anything else.."

Massage is a hands-on, holistic method of health care.

Massage therapists use hands-on techniques on the muscles, fascia, tendons, ligaments and joints to bring relief from everyday aches, reduce stress, increase relaxation, address feelings of anxiety and tension, and aid general wellness.

Massage therapy also treats specific physical and medical conditions by releasing muscle tension, restoring muscle and postural balance, increasing circulation and improving tissue nutrition. Therapeutic massage can effectively treat long term chronic pain, motor vehicle accident rehabilitation, athletic injuries, repetitive strain injuries and nerve impingements.

It can also be used in support of other therapies to assist in the rehabilitation of muscular injuries i.e. massage can improve the effectiveness and comfort level of chiropractic or physiotherapy care.

Massage can also be an important part of a preventative maintenance program. For long term health, consider a maintenance plan of monthly treatments. This approach works well when you are at a level of health that you want to maintain. The monthly massages take care of minor aches before they become painful problems.

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

* Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Hypnotherapy can help you improve sleep and can impact on your health

ACCORDING to recent medical research, regular fulfilling sleep can reduce the risk of cardiovascular disease (CVD) and primary hypertension in the same way that exercise, healthy diet and quitting smoking can.

A recent study published in the European Journal of Preventive Cardiology found that people who enjoy a relaxing night's sleep can significantly reduce their chances of being affected by cardiovascular disease. If this is combined with a healthy lifestyle, results showed that people have a 57 per cent lower risk of CVD both fatal and non fatal and are 67 per cent less likely to die from the illness.

In response to these latest findings Michelle Hague a professional Clinical Hypnotherapist and International lecturer with The London College of Clinical Hypnosis is focusing her attention on sleep disorders and primary hypertension and has decided to highlight the effectiveness of clinical hypnotherapy and mindfulness to help those suffering with sleep disorders. The London College of Clinical Hypnosis in partnership with The University of West London train all their therapists to assist individuals presenting with sleep disorders and help them make those important life style changes, that can so seriously affect their health. The British Society of Clinical Hypnosis, which is made up of qualified and professional hypnotists, supports all its members who can help clients to learn techniques to help themselves relax and fall to sleep more easily.

"The findings of this new research are indicative of how important sleep is and the effect it can have on individuals health and well being."

The BSCH is made up of hypnotherapy professionals and is committed to ensuring the highest possible professional standards amongst its members.

Those looking for assistance to stop smoking, weight control, anxiety, panic attacks, habits and phobias may be helped by their local BSCH accredited therapists, look for the MBSCH letters after their name on their websites, or check out your local therapist online at www.bscl.org.uk/Finding.htm As one of the largest registers of independent Hypnotherapists, the British Society of Clinical Hypnosis (BSCH) is actively involved with the Complementary and Natural Healthcare Council (CNHC) and strives to develop standards for the benefit of the profession, now and into the future.

The London College of Clinical Hypnosis is now teaching new students in Taunton, and enrolling now for the next certificate course, which starts in September if your interested in the course please contact 01297 20144 and www.lcch-taunton.co.uk

If you want to make life style changes for yourself or improve your sleep and want to know if Michelle can help you, call her on 07761 773563 or take a look at the website www.takecontrolofyourlife.co.uk.

Axminster Garden Machinery have a large showroom and parts department as well as a fully equipped workshop so you can actually view and handle virtually every type of machinery they supply. If working hours mean you can't come during the opening hours someone can meet you on site or open the show room for you at an arranged time. They pride themselves on the fact that they are factory main appointed dealers, for this gives the customer peace of mind when it comes to spares or repairs or servicing. They can provide the full backup.

As a complete horticultural and ground care equipment independent Specialist, they offer you the customer a complete package and much more Jurassic Folk Summer Special – Gadjo return!

THEY came as musical exiles from furthest Gadjistan and choose Barcelona as the place where they would open their suitcases and air their instruments. Seven musicians bound by their Gadjistani culture, a rich and festive culture with bewitching rhythms and funny dances, exuberant, theatrical cal melodies and a mish-mash of languages. Gadjo have toured extensively through Europe, sowing their musical mayhem as they go, from gypsy-cumbia, balkanic-ska to reggae-swing and surf tango. Sometimes they appear playing an intimate acoustic set on the market square, sometimes under the lights of a festival stage, but wherever it is expect the dust to fly as the music kidnaps your heart and lifts your feet into an unstoppable dance.

Gadjo is.... Fraggles, vocals and accordion, is from England, as is Sam, clarinet, saxes from Devon, Emma, saxes, flute from Norfolk, and George, double bass, trumpet, vocals from Somerset/Devon. Then we have Paul, euphonium, trumpet, harmonica from Maryland, USA, Xabi, guitar, banjo, vocals from the Basque country, France, and Jerry, percussion, vocals from La Plata, Argentina, and everybody sings in their own tongue when so inspired. But that is not all, Emma is married to Paul and they have a bouncing 3 year old, Aisha, and Sam is married to Lucie (not in the band) who is from Bordeaux, France and they also have a 3 year old, Leon, and they all travel around together to their gigs all over Europe in an ex-police van.

Gadjo were at Jurassic Folk last year, and here is a report in the paper that followed:

"Jurassic Folk will never be the same again after the seven piece band Gadjo descended upon it on Wednesday night. From the moment they took the stage it was quite clear that the crowd was in for something very special, and they didn't disappoint. Visually a riot of colour met one's eyes, from the generously bedecked microphone stands rampant with flowers to the flamenco style skirts of Emma and raunchy bustle outfit of Fraggles. But all this would be nothing without the music, which soon had everyone up and dancing, be they youngsters, and some were very young, to middle aged and beyond. The actual music is difficult to describe as it doesn't pigeonhole very easily, but it encompassed songs in a variety of languages, dances in a variety of styles as the Cumbias were balkanised and the Skas whipped into boogaloes. A near capacity crowd showed their appreciation in no uncertain manner and as they left at the end of the evening there wasn't a single face without a smile on it."

Catch them at the Jurassic Folk Summer Special at the Grove, Seaton, doors open 7.45pm on Wednesday, August 7th. Could be another sell out, so best get your advance tickets at £8 from www.eastdevonfolk.org or 01297 20064. If any left on the door they will be £10.

New owners at The George Inn, Chardstock

NEW owners Linda and her family have recently taken over The George, a 15th century traditional Inn, nestling in the heart of the picturesque village of Chardstock, close to the Devon, Somerset and Dorset borders. Bursting with olde worlde charm, linenfold panelling, large oak beams and stone mullioned windows, there's even graffiti dating back to 1649. Dine in style in the restaurant or enjoy the full menu in the bar in front of the welcoming fire. There's also the terraced beer garden for warmer days.

...think bistro pub rather than gastro pub

The George has an eclectic menu and supports other local businesses by buying ingredients and produce from nearby farms and producers as much as possible. The menu ranges from traditional dishes like chicken and asparagus pie and fish and chips to more Mediterranean, Middle Eastern and Greek influenced dishes, like lasagne, tagines, moussaka and beef stifado (literal translation "stolen meat"). Complete your meal with a homemade rhubarb and apple crumble or apricot brioche tart. All this is complemented by an extensive wine list and good selection of traditional local real ales. Once you visit this warm and friendly pub, you'll no doubt feel inclined to become one of the regulars.

Davie Bowie is happening now – in Seaton!

MILLIONS of David Bowie fans were left devastated last year when thousands of tickets to see the legendary

ALADDIN SANE | David Bowie Is Happening
Now will be streamed at The Gateway

British rocker's most iconic pieces at London's V & A Museum were snapped up in minutes.

The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall is delighted to present live streaming of 'David Bowie is happening now' direct from the Victoria and Albert Museum, London.

Tuesday, August 13th, doors open 6pm, performance 7pm.

Tickets £10 in advance £12 on the door Available from Box Office 10am to 1pm Mon to Sat Tel: 01297 625699 www.seatongateway.co.uk

David Bowie is happening now will be directed by BAFTA winning director, Hamish Hamilton who directed the live TV coverage of the opening and closing ceremonies at the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games, and produced by Done & Dusty Productions Ltd. The event will feature special guests offering an insight into the stories behind some of the 300 objects from the David Bowie Archive, many of which have never before been displayed in public.

The Victoria & Albert museum has been given unprecedented access to the David Bowie Archive to curate the first international retrospective of the extraordinary career of David Bowie.

In many ways the perfect exhibition, it showcases the glittering career of one of the most versatile and thoughtful artists that the UK has produced. The range of collaborations with artists and designers in the fields of fashion, sound, graphics, theatre, art and film is astonishing. The music is wonderful too.

The exhibition is like an impression of Bowie himself, constantly surprising, fun, curious and compelling.

The V&A's Theatre and Performance curators, Victoria Broackes and Geoffrey Marsh have selected handwritten lyrics, original costumes, fashion, photography, film, music videos, set designs, Bowie's own instruments and album artwork.

On display will be Ziggy Stardust bodysuits (1972) designed by Freddie Burretti, photography by Brian Duffy; album sleeve artwork by Guy Peellaert and Edward Bell; visual excerpts from films and live performances including The Man Who Fell to Earth, music videos such as Boys Keep Swinging and set designs created for the Diamond Dogs tour (1974). Alongside these will be more personal items such as never-before-seen storyboards, handwritten set lists and lyrics as well as some of Bowie's own sketches, musical scores and diary entries, revealing the evolution of his creative ideas.

Seaton Art Exhibition

SEATON Town Hall will be ablaze with a "Riot of Colour" next week when the 90 artists of Seaton & District Art Society stage their 41st annual Art Exhibition – open to the public from Saturday 3rd August to Thursday 8th August, 10am to 5.30pm every day.

With a healthy intake of new members exhibiting alongside East Devon's fine regulars, the show promises to be a memorable one.

Having initiated a themed section last year, members of the Society have been busy this year creating work for a group of square canvases entitled "A Riot of Colour" – a theme which presents a challenging freedom. The limitation comes with the price because the paintings must be on sale for £40 or less – a sure bargain for the buyer.

Regular visitors will be on the lookout for work by the Society's regulars – oils by Liz Wheeldon, designer of the Exhibition poster and catalogue, miniatures by Seaton's international award-winning artist Rosemary Bentley RMS.HS, textile paintings by Exhibition coordinator Jan Charlesworth, botanical beauty by Sue Linton SBA, abstracts by Janet Owen, strong mixed media from Gilly Warner-Mills, bright acrylics by Magie Luff, evocative watercolours by Joyce Fountain SWA, fine pencil drawings by both Rose Shrubsall and Exhibition coordinator Sally Jowett and wit in oils by Michael Beach SWA, who won the President's Cup last year. Michael and Gerry Bennett will also be showing amusing and ingenious automata.

Colyton veteran, former Chairman of the Society David Clarke GAvA will exhibit work in both watercolour and oils alongside the oil paintings by his wife June. Another painting partnership comes from Axminster – Yvonne and Keith Barnes, she working in a variety of mediums, he in oils.

The Society's Secretary Peter Lund will be showing stunning portraits in oils of aircraft this year rather than his remarkable railway locomotives.

Three dimensional works will include clay life-studies by the Society's Chairman Anna Mason, bronze resin sculptures by Exeter member Riki Horn, enamel clocks by Honiton-based Paul Redvers and a wealth of ceramic fun and observation by Seaton's own John Hilder.

The Show will be opened on Friday evening, 2nd August by the Society's President, illustrious landscape artist Alan Cotton, D.Litt, FRSA, SWA, who will also head the team of judges for the awards. On Saturday 3rd August the Exhibition opens to the public.

Throughout the Exhibition visitors themselves will be asked to judge and vote for the work they most applaud. Their votes will decide who wins the Mitre Box Cup. Children specially enjoy doing this and there will also be a competition for them to enter.

A splendid watercolour of Otterhead by Exmouth artist John Cowlishaw has been donated by a committee member as the raffle prize and there will be a sale of art materials and books and a tombola with prizes to tempt everyone, art lovers or not.

Not content with painting, members will have made delicious cakes to serve with the tea and coffee.

Admission for adults costs just 50p to include a catalogue which allows for return visits throughout the show. Children admitted free.

HOT SUMMER – HOT PROPERTY!

Market Viewpoint by Mark Goodenough (Pennys Fine & Country)

As one of the warmest months on record comes to an end property agent Mark Goodenough looks at what's hot this summer in property circles.

TOP 5 TIPS FOR SELLERS

TOP 5 PROPERTY TYPES IN DEMAND

1. Project properties / doer uppers / tear downs
2. Character cottages / pretty village homes / period gems
3. Family homes upto £250,000
4. Decent flats (preferably with sea views!)
5. Classic 'lock up and leave' or low maintenance 2nd homes

1. Always look to get two agents to value your home – have they sold any comparable property recently?
2. First impressions matter – neat front gardens & a freshly painted front door always help.
3. Clear the clutter!
4. Don't 'shadow' buyers on a viewing – let them wander and soak up the atmosphere!
5. Listen & act on the viewing feedback – maybe re-dressing a room will help the sale?

In summary, this summer market has taken off well with more buyers, more viewings and most importantly more offers received than this time last year. Accurate and realistic valuation remain the name of the game to attract the serious buyer.

Instead of all the sales waffle spoken by other agents we show our clients intelligent marketing options backed up by tangible differences to hopefully make that sale happen a little bit faster and smoother. The Pennys Fine and Country team are always delighted to sit down (or discuss over the phone 01297 22224) and see how together we can present your property, no matter what the value, to the widest audience.

Honda tops What Car? reliability chart for eight years running

HONDA has once again been named the most reliable car manufacturer in the annual What Car? and Warranty Direct Reliability Survey. This result means Honda has taken the much sought after title for an unprecedented eight years in a row, further reinforcing Honda's reputation for building rock-solid, dependable cars.

This achievement is attributed to Honda's robust manufacturing practices which have resulted in low failure rates and lower than average repair costs for customers.

The What Car? and Warranty Direct Reliability Survey is based on real claims data and is a compilation of reviews and opinions of over 50,000 car owners. It takes into account the average yearly repair costs, common model issues and the owners overall reliability score for their car.

Honda models feature prominently throughout the survey with the British built Jazz and Civic continuing to do well in their respective classes, as does the Accord, while the HR-V was named the most reliable compact SUV.

Chas Hallett, editor in chief, What Car? magazine added "Eight years at the top of the annual What Car? / Warranty Direct Reliability study is a remarkable achievement for Honda. This study is based on hard facts and figures and is confirmation that Honda makes great cars that are unlikely to let down their owners."

Phil Crossman, Managing Director, Honda (UK) commented; "Reliability is at the heart of all our research, development and manufacturing processes and this ensures we build reliable and high quality cars. We strive to deliver an enjoyable and hassle free Honda ownership to all our customers, from the moment they purchase, right through the lifetime of the car.

"Success in reliability studies further proves the dedication, skill and passion of our engineers, associates and dealer network. We are incredibly proud to be the most reliable manufacturer in the industry – yet again!"

What Car? isn't the only title to recognise Honda's bullet proof reliability. It follows hot on the heels of the Which? Car Reliability and Best Buy survey which saw the Jazz and Insight taking the top spots in their respective categories.

Tram trundles home first!

Honiton Running Club with Judy Davey

Last Sunday saw the running of the inaugural Mrs E's Big Wheeze and the Honiton runners who took part were relieved to find that the morning was slightly cooler than the weather had been during the preceding week.

The headquarters of this six-mile race was at Mrs Ethelston's Primary School in Uplyme and the route was a mixture of road, woodland and tracks.

The race was won in the incredible time of 36 minutes 13 seconds by visiting holidaymaker Tim Harley of Nottingham AC.

It'll be a long time before that record is broken; he was almost two minutes ahead of Matt Clist of Axe Valley Runners who finished 2nd.

The first runner back for Honiton was Chris Entwistle who finished 5th in exactly 42 minutes. He was followed by Richard Harvey in 8th place in 45:27.

Predictably, Steve Davey was next back in 10th place with a time of 46:26.

Young Henry Riddle was just two places behind in 47:02. Suzanne Spiller was first lady overall and winner of the 'Queen of the Hill' collecting a gorgeous bunch of flowers and strawberry wine courtesy of the sponsors. She finished in 14th place in 47:26.

Bruce Strawbridge and Simon Spiller came back in 16th and 17th place respectively with Bruce finishing in 48:44 and Simon just 10 seconds later.

They had been just feet apart from each other for most of the race and only lost Judy Davey during the last mile.

Judy finished as 2nd lady overall and 19th place in 50:02.

Both Judy and Steve were first in their age categories winning a bottle each.

John Burgess completed the Honiton line up but he suffered with the heat and a recent cold. He finished in 32nd place in 59:21.

There were 42 finishers but hopefully next year there will be more as everyone who took part thought it was a cracking event with great marshals and brilliant organisation.

Axe Valley Runners with Dave Mutter

LAST Monday's annual Race The Tram event resulted in a victory for the Tram.

Five AVR teams started from Colyton Station and ran in relays back to the Seaton Tram Terminis, with the Junior section running the off road leg from Colyton to Colyford.

Unfortunately Tram Driver Allan Mace was in no mood to compromise and the tram screeched into the terminis just 12 min 34 sec after departure.

The first team was just Garry Perratt and Liam Roberts, despite Garry twisting his ankle the duo completed the run in 14:57.

The Red baton team were 3rd, 15:27 and there was a fine battle twixt the green and silver baton in which the green team finished 4th, 17:06 just seven seconds ahead of the silver.

After the race everyone ad-journed to the Bayliss Beach Hut to enjoy some refreshment, followed by Paul Johns presenting the junior section awards for 2012/13.

Male runner was Ollie Caute, the female runner May Wood and the most improved runner Mia Bartlett.

The Chris Levene award for Endeavour was won by Max Bowskill.

Unfortunately the Head Junior Coach, Paul Johns, who has in-stalled in young AVR members a love of running, is to retire.

Senior Section

THE Seniors Captain and Vice Captain chose their own teams to compete in a four-ball matchplay event for the captain/vice captains shield.

There were 84 players who enjoyed very good conditions and everyone seemed to enjoy it, even the losers.

Since he chose his own team Captain Bob Underwood had no reason to complain when Bill Eaton's team won by 14 1/2 to 6 1/2.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

Seniors

THE July Medal last Friday attracted a field of 38 members.
